INCUMBENTS RETAIN COUNCIL SEATS

In Freeway's Path

NUMBER ONE—First home in Daly City to be demolished in route of proposed Junipero Serra freeway is Jack Dennis residence, a former hay barn and stables at 212 Railroad avenue. Seventy-eight parcels are involved in the 2.5 mile project from 3/10 mile south of Eastmoor avenue to Orizaba in San Francisco. Highway right-of-way designers have acquired 15 parcels and hope to get the line bought and the 10-million dollar highway under construction by early 1963.

4 'Firebug' Firemen Suspended In Bizarre Arson Case

The Daly City Fire Department washed its own linen on Sunday, April 8 as four firemen were suspended after they were accused of encouraging two "friends" to burn a warehouse in order to get more firemen on the roster.

The accusers, John J. Grizzel, 26, and Richard G. Hamilton, 23, were arrested shortly after midnight Friday by Inspector James Bergstrom and Lieutenant David Hansen and charged with conspiracy to set a fire.

Suspended were Acting Captain Harvey Cross of Firehouse No. 2, hoseman George Bullwinkel, 22, of 352 Winchester street; hoseman Robert Malcolm, 30, of 498 Evergreen avenue; and hoseman James Dresser, 29, of 83 Carmel avenue.

The district attorney's office said charges will be filed against Dresser, Grizzel and Hamilton. The three other firemen apparently joined in the conversation, but did not go to the warehouse to start the fire.

Grizzel told police he got a call from the firehouse, asking him and Hamilton to stop over, pick up money and bring back liquor. He and Hamilton agreed.

While the six men played cards and drank, the subject turned to fires and the shortage of firemen. Then came the idea to set fires as a way to get more firemen.

Grizzel was arrested as he was leaving the Lagomarsino warehouse at Washington and Dunk streets in Daly City. He was halted by Bergstrom and Hansen who had spotted Hamilton in a car and saw Grizzel running towards it.

The fire was started in the warehouse by an unidentified person after the two men were arrested. A patrolman saw the blaze and reported it. Captain Cross, said one of his men was spotted near the scene by police before the fire and talked to them, but that he was on a "legal call."

Grizzel, a draftsman, lives at 475 Evergreen. Hamilton, a stock controller, lives at 499 Evergreen. They were released on $1,000 bail each.

They stated that one of the firemen siphoned a gallon of gasoline from the station's pickup truck and drove the truck to the warehouse with Grizzel and Hamilton following in Hamilton's car. The firemen then spread gas on the ground beneath the warehouse floor, Grizzel and Hamilton said.

Lie detector tests were planned for the four firemen at the Daly City police station at 8 a.m. Wednesday.

Union Charge Dismissed

Crown Drug Company, 855 So. Mayfair, Daly City, has won the case brought against it by Retail Clerks Union Local 775.

In a decision released to the press Tuesday, the National Labor Relations Board found that the drug store had not engaged in unfair labor practices as charged by the union, and recommended that the case be dismissed in its entirety.

The charge by the union grew out a complaint filed by Local 775 alleging that Crown Drug had since March 1959 refused to sign a written contract relative to working conditions that both parties had agreed upon, and that this was in violation of certain portions of the National Labor Relations Act.

The NLRB under Trial Examiner Eugene K. Kennedy found that the drug store was not in violation of the labor relations act because store negotiator Robert Norton, "did have authority to negotiate but not to conclude an agreement."

Norton and the union had reached agreement on a tentative contract early in 1961. Norton then tried to contact store owner Paul Robey to gain his approval but " . . for some reason did not get Robey's approval. Whether it was because of Robey's illness, his absence

Brunans Rage At Highway

Four hundred angry San Bruno homeowners showed up for the state division of highways Thursday meeting on proposed route 229, and vigorously protested what they referred to as an "angry scar" on their town.

The homeowners were against it, but everybody else seemed to favor the highway. The board of supervisors, the airport, San Mateo County Development association, and the Operating Engineers all supported the proposed cross-county road.

So vociferous were the residents during the hearing that at one time Assistant District Engineer Joseph Sinclair got up to tell them that their pleas would have "absolutely no effect" on the decision made by the State Highway Commission.

One resident, Mrs. Harry Graham, a leader of the San Bruno Freeway Petition association, bore a petition containing 2,500 names against any of the three proposed routes.

Said Mrs. Graham: "This road is not being built for the benefit of residents of San Bruno, and will produce unnecessary and willful injury to our Community."

City Manager Statement On 'Fired' Firemen

My office and both the Police and Fire Departments of Daly City have undertaken a thorough investigation of all circumstances surrounding the four firemen who were implicated in possible arson and who are now all suspended pending investigation.

Presently, lie detector tests have been scheduled for Wednesday morning, April 11. The men involved have indicated a willingness to submit to such a test.

We regard this as a highly serious matter and will not in any way excuse any misconduct which may be shown. After the lie detector tests on Wednesday, we will announce what disciplinary acts are indicated, if any.

All evidence concerning the four firemen has been called to the attention of the District Attorney's Office as well.

Firemen Plan Spring Clean-up

By FRANK SPECHT,
Batallion Chief

Each year the Fire Prevention Bureau asks the homeowners to rid their homes of all unnecessary combustible materials.

To help us make our program a success, the Daly City Scavenger Company will open their dumps to all of the people they service from April 23 through 29th. You will be able to dump all of the rubbish you have around your home FREE, 8 am to 5 pm each day.

The Fire Prevention Bureau is grateful to Mr. Serini and his company for this generous act. We feel that this can be a big step forward in making your home more fireproof.

This will mean some determination and work on your part. Here is a chance to clean your yard of bushes and old lumber, your basement of all those things you should have got rid of long ago, from old cans of paint you will never use to the old furniture that is just taking up space. If you have an attic perhaps there is more rubbish there. All of those things are fire hazards in your home.

Be sure to check this paper a week before clean-up-week. A map will show you how to get to the dumps.

It is our sincere wish that you don't take this offer lightly. Start cleaning out your home from top to bottom, stacking all of your junk or rubbish in a pile so you can take advantage of this offer when it comes.

Make your spring clean-up program a success, it could be made into a yearly one. You will be helping your fire department, your city and your home, but mostly your self and your family.

Fire destroys lives and property. DON'T give fire a place to breed.

Bid For Assembly Thwarted

Jefferson High School District Trustee Dr. Jerry Miles tried to file at the last minute for the GOP nomination for 27th district assemblyman, but tripped by a piece of red tape.

He appeared at the county court house in Redwood City at 4:30 p.m. last Friday—30 minutes prior to filing deadline. County Clerk John Bruning tried to explain that there was not sufficient time remaining to circulate the nomination papers. Twenty signatures were needed. But Miles said he had a way.

He explained that he had a man waiting for him who would circulate the papers. A candidate cannot circulate his own. Bruning issued the papers at 4:35 p.m. and Miles rushed off.

Miles explained later that 20 signatures had already been lined up and he needed the 30 minutes only to collect them. But there was that fly. . . .

His companion had already circulated papers for another candidate. And the rules permit no more. He was disqualified.

"So I was the one surprised," said the Pacifica podiatrist. The clock chugged past five and it

Auxiliary Plans Luncheon Theater And Fashions

A bevy of beautiful women representing Westlake and Daly City attended the Green Hills Country Club on Tuesday. The occasion was a benefit luncheon and bridge and canasta party for the Catholic Social Service of San Mateo County. One hundred and fifty women from San Francisco to Menlo Park came attired in spring finery that looked like an Easter Parade.

Mrs. Edward Molkenbuhr, Jr. who is president of the auixiliary included neighbors in Westlake and friends from San Francisco in her party. Among these were Mrs. Milton Reiterman looking very chic in a green knit dress, Mrs. John Bennett attired in a black and white ensemble, and Mrs. Louis Paulson who wore a very chic hat.

Also from Westlake was Mrs. George Tracy, and Mrs. Rodney Nessier. Mrs. Howard Dunba rof Daly City was with Mrs. Molkenbuhr, who wore navy blue with a large white straw hat. Mrs. Edward Reidy was striking in a lime green ensemble.

Many compliments were given on the "all-American" colors worn by Mrs. Howard Poblitz. These are but a few, who attended the first in a series of benefit luncheons sponsored by the Catholic Social Service Auxiliary of San Mateo County, whose prime interest and purpose for such fund-raising events is to raise capital for the work of the service, in prevention of family disentegration from divorce, in San Mateo County.

The next luncheon and card party will be held on Tuesday, May 8th at the "Marie Antonette" in Menlo Park. Reservations may be secured from Mrs. Edward Molkenbuhr of Westlake or Mrs. Robert Owens at LYtell 1-0938.

Career Day At SSFHS

About 800 juniors and seniors will be given the latest information about 57 careers at South San Francisco High School, Wednesday, April 11, according to Mrs. Donald Kistner, coordinator.

Each student will be attending two session with occupational spokesmen who are actively employed in the careers they will be discussing. "This means that a student from South San Francisco High School will be given expert advice on four occupational fields before he graduates," emphasized Mrs. Kistner.

This is the second year that Career Day has been scheduled at South San Francisco High School. It was offered again this year after a poll of students indicated that they considered it useful.

Principal Louis Bagnell commented that Career Day is an important part of the vocational counseling program at the school. "It is one way we bring first-hand information about occupations to the students. Without the cooperation of many community leaders who will be our speakers, this program would be impossible, we appreciate their help," said Mr. Bagnell.

Head Counselor Robert Howe and Mrs. Kistner have established a vocational library which provided background information on about 100 occupations. According to Mr. Howe, each counselor provides for vocational guidance as needed, and a part time employment counselor is placed in the school by the United States Employment Service. Mrs. Marjorie Wentz, who acts in this capacity, assists students in finding jobs.

It was at this time that the union filed the unfair labor practice charge claiming that it was a violation to reach an agreement and then not execute it in writing.

The trial examiner's opinion stated that before a violation is committed it must be established that the appropriate bargaining unit of both parties is involved, and that, "since the record lacks any evidence of Robey's agreement to the union's proposed contract, it follows that it has not been established that there was a negotiated and agreed upon contract."

EVENING SESSION

At the evening session attended by some 250 additional residents, San Bruno council candidate Les Kelting raged at outsiders who would impose the freeway on reluctant citizens.

"I believe it is high time we have some officials in city hall who will stand up and be counted in defiance of Mr. Fitzgerald (Supervisor James V. Fitzgerald of San Bruno), and the board of supervisors who would so glibly hand our city over to the network of high speed monsters," said Kelting.

Mathematics Meeting At Jack Tar Hotel

The teaching of mathematics — from kindergarten sums to abstruse differential equations — will be the consideration of more than 3,000 delegates to the 40th annual meeting of the National Council of Mathematics gathering April 15-18 at the Jack Tar Hotel.

Host organization is the California Council of Teachers of Mathematics with Kenneth C. Skeen of the Diablo Valley College acting as local chairman.

The Council of Mathematics is formed by the teaching staffs of schools from primary grades through the institutes of higher learning. This organization places stress on the instructional aspect of mathematics rather than its applied uses.

Lectures, panel discussions, class demonstrations, film-strip viewing pertaining to mathematics will fill the four-day conclave. On Wednesday, April 18, the event will be climaxed by a banquet held in the Jack Tar ballroom with Dr. Mina S. Rees, a noted administrator of both government and academic enterprises and dean of graduate studies at the City University of New York, giving the key address. Dr. Rees' topic is "The Nature of Mathematics."

• Transportation Master Plan

A major step toward solving the Bay Area's traffic problems has been taken as a result of the Governor's and Legislature's support of a preliminary study which may ultimately lead to the development of a transportation master plan for the nine counties, Stanley E. McCaffrey, chairman of the Bay Area Transportation Coordination Committee and president of the Bay Area Council, declared today.

Following favorable action by the Governor on the Transportation Coordination Committee's request that the State Transportation Agency in cooperation with the State Office of Planning and the Bay Area's various cities and counties, undertake a preliminary study on the area's transportation needs, a resolution requesting similar action was introduced in the Legislature by Senator "J" Eugene McAteer. This resolution, co-authored by virtually all of the Bay Area's legislators and by the chairmen of the Senate and Assembly Transportation Committees, Senator Randolph Collier and Assemblyman Jack Beaver, respectively, was passed unanimously last week.

You, The Loser

There is one important aspect of excessively high taxation of incomes which has been given much less attention than it merits.

In a recent symposium on tax reform, Dan Throop Smith, Professor of Finance in the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, touched on it in these words: "Excessive tax rates distort business decisions and personal decisions on investments. They distract attention from productive work which creates more income to efforts to minimize tax burdens. At a 90 per cent tax rate, it is as important to an individual, though certainly not to society, to save a dollar of taxes as it is to earn ten dollars of income."

This individual, in sum, is more concerned with trying to improve his tax position than in trying to develop enterprises which would produce more jobs, more and better goods and services—and, ultimately, more sources of taxation for government at all the levels. And the whole nation, and everyone in it, is the big loser.

Two Little Words

Two current and stubbornly-held misconceptions concerning Federal spending need to be scotched, once and for all. One is that defense spending is almost totally responsible for soaring budgets. The other is that inflation has been a major factor in increased spending.

The facts:

National security expenditures budgeted for the 1963 fiscal year—$52.7 billion—are only 15 per cent above 1960 and 29 per cent above 1955 expenditures. On the other hand, domestic nondefense spending of $28.1 billion in 1962 is 37 per cent more than in 1960 and 84 per cent above 1955.

According to the government's own consumer price index, prices have increased 11.4 per cent between fiscal 1955 and now. That much of the increase in government costs can be reasonably charged to inflation. But — Federal domestic nondefense programs are expected to be 84 per cent higher in 1963 than in 1955, an increase of more than seven times the inflation factor.

Why, then, the zooming budgets? A large part of the answer can be given in just two little words —"Welfare State."

According to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, our government spending has grown so vast that in a 15-month period it would be sufficient to buy up everything that Soviet Russia produced in one year, including financing the Russian armed forces and all their missile work.

Wise words from the past—Thomas Jefferson once said: "I have never considered a difference of opinion in politics, in religion, in philosophy, as cause for withdrawing from a friend."

COUNTY DOINGS

by JACK WOOD

The county board of education has decided not to censure county superintendent of schools James R. Tormey because of his actions in the Christmas Carol controversy last December.

Instead, the board adopted a resolution praising Tormey for his "fine educational leadership."

The censure has been proposed by a group called CAPS—California Association for the Protection of Schools. The organization was said to be formed by a group of San Mateo county residents following the widespread publicity that the singing of Christmas carols had been banned in the Laguna Salada school district.

John F. Roake, of Hillsborough, counsel for CAPS, recalled that Dr. Byron C. Curry, deputy superintendent of schools, had given advice that no carols were to be sung that mentioned Christ, Mary, Joseph or the Wise Men. The idea was to get across in the districts that they should try to maintain "a spirit of tolerance to all beliefs."

Tormey and the board have defended Tormey's practice of sending each year to the county school superintendents a reminder that care should be exercised in the staging of Christmas observances because of laws prohibiting the promotion of religions in public schools.

Board member J. Paul Bradley asserted that carols should only be prohibited when they are presented in a "sectarian settings." He said the judgment of whether particular carols should be sung at particular times should be left to the individual teacher involved.

Mayor Guido Rozzi of South San Francisco has been named to a nation-wide mayors' committee to study the city-airport jet squabble.

Recent decisions by the United States Supreme court have placed heavier obligations on the airports. The jet noise problem is varied with the cities, but the court action has given the cities the needed drive to continue their battle.

May 24 is the date set for the appearance of Richard Nixon at the climax of a series of political forum debates in South San Francisco. Sponsored by the Political Action club of South San Francisco high school, the series will also feature county and state candidates.

FIRE FACTS

This article is written by the Daly City Firemen and is published in this paper for the purpose of keeping the public informed about their Fire Department, its duties and associated activities.

Throughout the year the Daly City Fire Prevention Bureau strives to keep this City safe from fire by the elimination of fire hazards in the homes and businesses, but with all of the effort of the Bureau, no City is or will be 100% free of fire hazards.

It is a never ending job, and some times a very thankless and discourging one. The City Council, City Manager and Fire Chief realize the importance of the Bureau, they also realize the Bureau cannot show in dollars and cents the effective job that it is doing, but we all know that the hundreds of fire hazards that have been corrected in our City each one was a potential fire where life and property could have been lost.

The Fire Prevention Bureau is doing an excellent job, but your help is needed to help save your life and property, you can help by cleaning out your basements, attic, under the stairs and other places where a fire hazard exists, you can check your wiring, chimney, your fire place.

In recent weeks this Department has responded to fires which were caused by the non-use of fire grates in the fire place, where the fire is built on the bricks, this practice can start fires through "conduction," the heat going through the bricks into the joist causing a fire, we would like to suggest that if you have a fire in your fire place, be sure you use a grate and a fire screen, you then can sit and enjoy the fire and be assured that you and your family are safe, many fires are discovered long after the fire in the fire place has gone out and the people are in bed.

The greatest fear of a fireman is to have a fire in a residence after 10 or 11 o'clock at night because of the life hazard, we are always afraid that someone did not awake and still might be in the home.

Thought for the week: Have an emergency escape route in your home. Don't try to extinguish the fire, close doors and escape. Know the location of the fire alarm box near you.

Spring Clean Up Week

For weeks we have been talking of Fire Prevention, sometime this month we will be able to help bring our program to your home.

Cleanup Week. The Daly City Scavanger Company will open their Dumps to all the people they service, for one week. You will be able to dump all the rubbish you have around your home absolutly Free.

The Fire Prevention Bureau is greatful to Mr. Sereni and his Company for this generous act. We feel that this can be a big step forward in making your home more fire proof.

This will mean some determination and work on your part. Here is a chance to clean our yard of bushes and old lumber. Your basement of all those things you should have got rid of long ago. From old cans of paint you will never use to the old furniture that is just taking up space. If you have an attic perhaps there is more rubbish there. All these things are fire hazards in your home.

This paper will carry the announcement of the week planed sometime this month. There will also be a map to show you how to get to the dumps.

It is our sincere wish that you don't take this offer lightly. Start cleaning out your home from top to bottom, stacking all your junk or rubbish in a pile so you can take advantage of this offer when it comes.

Remember the dates will be announced in this paper this month. Make our Spring Cleanup Program a success, it could be made a yearly one.

You will be helping your Fire Department, your City and your home, but mostly yourself and your family.

Fire destroys lives and property. Don't give fire a place to breed in your home.

Letters to Editor

Citizens Thanked For Operation Help Drive

Editor:

Last week Peter Markovcih gave me a check from Operation Help and a list of friends who gave to this drive.

Many peple helped in this drive that did not give their names. The city employees and their department heads all gave their help.

Some friends offered their skills in rebuilding our home. Others offered help in various other ways.

We would like to thank everyone who gave us help after our fire at Christmas time.

At a time when we felt so low, it gave us a warm feeling in our hearts to know we had so many wonderful friends. We feel very proud to live in a community where people will take time to help someone in need.

Sincerely,
John K. Coleman and family.

The View From ..Behind The Badge

Written and Edited by Daly City Police Department

You spend time in the taverns, and you take a drink or two. Strangely, that drink is taken on duty, and is allowed; for you are checking out information on a vice kick, and to do so you are posing as an ordinary bar customer.

It is difficult to do. In a city of fifty thousand people or less, the policemen are known. An undercover operation such as this is continually hampered by some well meaning but interfering soul greeting you loudly and enquiring, proprietorially and loudly (or politely but loudly, or jokingly but loudly—but aways loudly as to how things are on the police force these days, anyway?

And so you are "burned," as they say, and can no longer serve a purpose as an undercover agent in this particular location. You have seen enough, however, to convince you that a prostitute is operating, and you report accordingly.

It is three weeks before you are able to get a man into the suspect location undetected. Posing as a customer, he partakes of a libation. The man occasionally takes a social highball, but this one sits heavy on the stomach, and is not enjoyable. In a sense, the man is laying his stomach at the altar of his job.

He is approached, eventually, by the lady of the evening. He recognizes her, for he has checked out her records, and has found that she has been previously arrested for practicing the world's oldest profession.

She would converse, and he talks. She would drink, and he purchases the alcohol of her choice. She would go with him to a room; he is noncommittal. She would romance him, for a price. She has made all of the approaches; he finally accepts a price quoted by her.

They go to the street, and proceed to a room. They enter, and you follow, feeling silly and sneaky about it all. You listen outside the door, for all the world like a peeping tom.

You hear him count out the bills to the agreed amount, secure in the knowledge that the serial numbers of these particular Federal Reserve Bank notes repose innocently in your notebook. It is taxpayer's money, and is drawn from your chief's budgeted investigation fund.

You know that the woman is disrobing, for this is one of the elements that seem so necessary to conviction. Your man tarries, embarrasedly, for he must not disrobe.

Finally, the stage is set. You are forwarned by the age-old signal of the raised window shade, and you enter, stumbling over your own feet There they stand, she in complete deshabille and he blushing.

You introduce yourselves. She is surprised and irate. You prevail upon her to get dressed. You retrieve the taxpaver's money, which will be held as evidence.

You take the woman to the station and book her as a prostitute. The story which you elicit from her is sad. Although she is reluctant to name names, she is willing to discuss her modus operandi freely.

You are not surprised to find that she works for a pimp, and has moved into the neighborhod only recently. Half of her earnings go to this man. He also is able to obtain "whatever else he can con out of me, usually all of it," she says.

So you book her, and take her fingerprints and photograph—and you write your report. She is a good sport about it all—she is not angry at you personally, but is only upset at being caught.

This part of the case is finished, except for a possible court appearance on the part of the officers. Other aspects of the case can be tackled tomorrow.

You and the other man go home tiredly. You hope that none of your neighbors have seen you hanging around so many bars so often, or that his neighbors have not seen him with this woman. Your wives would understand, of course, but you don't know about the neighbors . . . and you would just as soon not have to go through the explanation to the wives.

You both feel lousy.

YOUNG HOODS . . . .

Sergeant Richard Sims, patrol sergeant for the second platoon, recently wrapped up several young men on a charge of strong arm robbery. He did this routinely and efficiently.

It should be remembered that, though these incidents occur with these young people, they do not indicate that things are out of control. Incidents occurring are for the most part well publicized, as the police department has nothing to hide. Readers should bear in mind that, though such incidents are bound to occur, we are clearing up a respectable amount of them, and preventing uncounted others.

And let us not blame the police for the incidents—we don't raise these children, we don't educate them, and we do not teach them the facts of life.

The police inherit the mistakes and inefficiencies of others. Our job is to preserve the peace, and to protect life and property. We are doing it. Reform is someone else's job.

SCIENCE FACT AND FABLE

EVERY TIME YOU DRINK MILK, THE CHANCES ARE THAT IT HAS BEEN PASTEURIZED, THAT IS, HEATED, TO KILL ANY DANGEROUS BACTERIA. THIS PROCESS IS NAMED AFTER LOUIS PASTEUR, A FRENCH CHEMIST.
PASTEUR'S VIEW THAT GERMS IN THE AIR COULD CAUSE INFECTIONS WAS APPLIED IN SURGICAL OPERATIONS BY JOSEPH LISTER, AN ENGLISH PHYSICIAN, WHO IN MARCH, 1865, FIRST USED ANTISEPTIC METHODS TO PREVENT INFECTION OF WOUNDS IN THE OPERATING ROOM.
IN 1880, PASTEUR, AFTER MANY EXPERMENTS, DEVELOPED A METHOD OF TREATING RABIES BY INOCULATING PEOPLE WITH ANTI-RABIES VACCINE. HIS DISCOVERY HAS SAVED THE LIVES OF MANY INDIVIDUALS BITEN BY RABID ANIMALS.
PASTEUR'S CONTRIBUTION TO MEDICINE HAS BECOME ONE OF THE FOUNDATION STONES OF MODERN IMMUNOLOGY: THE DEVELOPMENT OF VACCINES. SUCH WEAPONS AS THE SALK AND SABIN ANTI-POLIO VACCINES WORK ON THE PRINCIPLE OF MUSTERING THE BODY'S OWN DEFENSES AGAINST INVASION BY ENEMY VIRUSES.

Food For Thought

Dreams And Illusions

The Prophet Joel said "Old men shall dream dreams, but young men shall see visions." There is a very nebulous line between a dream and a vision. A vision is that which has possibility and potential; therefore, it is worthy of our efforts. A dream is that which has little possibility, and may deteriorate into an illusion.

The prophets have all equated illusions with idolatry and false gods, for that which is not real can destroy a man's capacity to believe and exist. There are many illusions or false gods concerning which, in this short space, I have the opportunity to mention only one.

One illusion, at least, that we must overcome is the illusion that right will win out if only we will be quiet. This is an illusion that is destructive, for there are so many "good people" who, when an evil occurrence takes place, do nothing believing that the good will come without their efforts.

Louis Nizer, who has written a book called "My Life in Court," has said that justice never walks into a courtroom; it must be dragged in. This is to say that we must become partners in the creation of a better world by causing justice to come into court or into our society. It will not happen unless we intervene.

In our own community, where racial prejudice has taken place, and where because there is now no added disturbances it is believed by the "good people" that right has won out; which is, of course, a destructive illusion; merely because no one raises his voice in public does not mean that beneath the surface unbrotherliness toward members of racial minorities does not exist.

If we wish to conquer this evil then we must recognize a prejudice does exist. As well, we must attempt through our churches, our schools and our social groupings to understand this situation, and last, we must topple over the false god that blinds us and causes us to believe that the good will always win without our efforts and that all is well if we will only be still.

The prophets of old exhorted us to worship the One and only God. They equated this with seeking truth. May we seek truth in all our ways, and thereby live in a world of reality and not illusion.

News From The Schools

Daniel Webster

The combination fifth and sixth grade class taught by Miss Eunice Wright at Daniel Webster School presented an original and educational assembly program on science for the intermediate grades on March 29, 1962. The performance was repeated for the kindergarten-primary classes the next day.

The program was the fifth in a series of presentations to the pupils designed to give them ideas how they can use some of their leisure time learning and performing desirable educational activities.

Simple experiments on the properties of air were woven into a plot involving a boy who had a science test coming up. All of his friends wished to help him pass even though he had not studied. Gathering at his home the different classmates showed him in experiments how to understand and to prove many facts about air.

To prove air is real, a blown-up balloon was used to send bits of paper flying when the air was forced from the balloon. To prove air has weight one boy placed a cheap yardstick with half its length on a table and half off. Then opening a newspaper and laying it over the half of the table he struck the stick at the table's edge with his hand. The stick broke but the paper lay undisturbed, proving that there was pressure from the air covering the surface of the paper.

To prove that air has weight identical balloons and strings were balanced on opposite ends of a yardstick. Then, after one of the girls blew up and replaced one balloon on one end of the yardstick, the filled balloon weighted that end down.

To prove that air has resistance an attempt to throw a flat piece of paper across the room was unsuccessful. By wadding up the paper and cutting down the exposed surface the same pupil was able to throw it across the width of the stage.

A balloon stretched over the neck of a bottle inflated when the bottle was heated proving that air expands when heated.

One of the most dramatic experiments involved setting fire to a paper, dropping it into a glass milk bottle and putting a shelled hard-boiled egg in the open neck of the bottle. The opening was smaller in diameter than the egg. As the flame inside burned up the oxygen, the outside air pressure forced the egg into the bottle.

The assembly program was completely planned, written and acted out by the pupils themselves under the direction of Miss Wright.

General Pershing

Miss Pat Shilts' and Miss Inez Strauch's first grade classes visited the San Mateo Junior Museum on Tuesday, April 3. They were accompanied by Mesdames P. Lagapa, C. Anderson, R. Fogleman, R. Gillmore, H. Marshall, C. Wagenman, J. Fode, F. Benjamin, and O. Davis.

Directr Danielson showed and explained various live and stuffed animals.

Garden Village School

At the Garden Village PTA meeting on April 24, "California or Bust" will be presented. It is a play based on the experiences of the Donner party and the hazards encountered in moving west.

It is part of a Social Studies unit on the Westward movement and develops research techniques, creative writing, use of hand tools, art, public speaking and geography. Mr. Madariaga's class will participate.

First and second grade parents will meet for their discussion group on April 26, 1 p.m., multi-use room, Garden Village. These groups have been stimulating, and have provoked much discussion about problems pertinent to different grade levels and ages. Mothers will lead the discussion groups.

The Spring Festival is proceeding nicely; each class is to participate in the program, on the school grounds, May 18.

The Garden Village Glee Club and Orchestra will present the Spring Music Festival May 22 under the direction of Miss Cooper and Mr. Sharpen.

Olympia School

Two Pekin ducks hatched in Mrs. Jones' first grade class. One duck hatched on Saturday, March 31 and the second duck hatched on Sunday, April 1.

On March 23 the second graders in Miss Cottrell's class walked to the Westlake Post Office. Each child wrote a letter and mailed it at the post office. They followed their own letter through each step. Mr. Bogdin told the children how mail is collected and distributed in the community.

This field trip culminated the study of the post office. The children gained an appreciation of the part the post office plays in community living, the part of the workers.

Mrs. Louis Plechot and Mrs. Raymond Acquisti accompanied the class on their trip.

Lincoln Elementary

Talent Show

Abraham Lincoln Elementary School presented its first talent show on Monday, April 9 for the intermediate grades and on Wednesday, April 11 for the primary grades. Twelve students, chosen by try-out performances, appeared with various renditions.

Dancing were Margaret Putnam and Julie Ann Jiminez. Musical instruments were played by Richard Timossi on the accordian and Eddie Henderson at the piano. Singing were Frances Prasinos, Yvonne Webster, Philip Schmuck, Mike Hopson and Linda Washford.

Elena Grijalva recited a poem — "Mary Anne's Luncheon." Laura Talmadge twirled the baton to the strains of "Stars and Stripes Forever" and Robin Trimble performed acrobatic novelties accompanied by the music from "Stardust."

General Pershing

Miss Pat Shilts' and Miss Inez Strauch's first grade classes visited the San Mateo Junior Museum on Tuesday, April 3. They were accompanied by Mesdames P. Lagapa, C. Anderson, R. Fogleman, R. Gillmore, H. Marshall, C. Wagenman, J. Fode, F. Benjamin, and O. Davis.

Director Danielson showed and explained various live and stuffed animals.

Vista Mar

Vista Mar was invited to participate in the third annual Children's Poetry Fair to be held in Long Beach, California May 12. This fair is not a contest, but a display of original verse of California school children. It's purpose is to encourage the child to think of himself as a creative writer, and to give recognition to the teacher who guides him.

One poem from the primary level and one from the elementary level were chosen.

San Smith, age 8, grade 2, Mrs. Jeane Oberlander's class wrote:

Night

I hear wind in the night,
In the day it blows my kite.
But now it's dark,
It's night,
But still it blows,
Left to right

Peter Schmale, age 9, grade 4, Mrs. Frances Lanthier's room wrote:

Through the Night

The sun comes up in the morn—
I hear the dim foghorn,
The dismal light shines
Through the pitch black night.
I hear the boats creak in their berth,
I hear the little dory coming near
As it ripples through the waves

The boys and girls in Mrs. Esther Turcott's fourth grade class at Vista Mar have been working in Science Research Associates Spelling Laboratory.

Multilevel materials allow each students to start where he is and to advance as fast and as far as his learning rate and capacity permit. The SRA Spelling Laboratory is student operated. Each student corrects his own errors and plots his own progress on charts provided. As a result the development of a responsibility for one's own learning, in his own individualized program is provided for the student.

Mrs. Esther Turcott demonstrated this technique to teachers of the district in her own classroom at Vista Mar.

Vista Mar best wishes and fond farewells were expressed with coffee and cookies as student teachers were leaving for new district teaching assignments. Mrs. Jane Cain, Miss Margaret Dwyer, Mrs. Jeane Oberlander, and Mrs. Paula Shepard, resident Vista Mar personnel will specially miss their respective student teachers, Rachel Smith, Sharon Light, Henrietta Robinson, and Susan Ostergard.

On the heels of the farewell a welcome was extended to student teachers starting their assignments at Vista Mar—Carole Keyworth, Cecile Schulman, Alyce Silverman who are working with resident teachers, Miss Harriet Gels, Mrs. Esther Turcott, and Mrs. Frances Lanthier, respectively.

Abraham Lincoln

"Peter and the Wolf" was performed in pantomine to the musical accompaniment of the famous orchestration by Mrs. Lea Fox's first grade of Abraham Lincoln Elementary School on Friday, April 6. Mrs. Marla Andersen, student teacher, directed the performance. Class members concocted the costumes and scenery.

Before an audience of parents and members of the three other first grades, Lloyd Medlock acted out the brave exploits of Peter, with Michael Dab as the Wolf, Colleen Carroll as the Cat, Sandra Otterbach as the Bird and Becky Sainsbury as the Duck. The Three Hunters were Jeffrey Katzman, Scott Hyde and Bert Tischbern. Grandfather was played by Kevin O'Brien.

Appearing as Flowers were: Debbie Edwards, Cheryl Hall, Virginia Smith, Tina Athens, Victoria Stewart, Janice Elkington and Brenda Poulin. The Trees of the forest were: Bradley Rehn, Stephen Carmen, Andrew O'Connell, Gary Merritt, Cynthia Crowley, John Charles Smith, Teresa Sainz, Debbie O'Neil, Eileen Puppo, Denise Aubrey, Peggy Jestad, Glenn Stewart, Robert Goldstein and David Guaraldi.

The Gate Holders were Robert DaSilva and Robby Roy. The House was held by Perry Redfield and Alex Galas.

Christopher Columbus

Debbie Tyler, second grader in Mrs. Alta Reed's room, narrated the story of the postman and his duties as a culmination of her class' unit in social studies. Mrs. Reed's student teacher, Rose Marie Farajian, planned the unit and the role-playing activity.

Timmy Tomasello played the role of Postman, and sorted and delivered mail to the children in her class. Each child had his own mail box with his address printed on the side. Timmy carried a pouch made of leather which a committee made. Other committees made sorting shelves, wrapped packages, made the postman's cap, and did further research for reports connected with the unit.

Stephanies Peters was the cancelling clerk, while Kathryn Hofeldt was the window clerk who weighed packages, took special letters, and sold stamps. Donna Hodges was the sorting clerk who helped the postman sort the mail. Danny Bagshaw brought the mail wagon.

"All children had the opportunity to plan and work with the postman and clerks in organizing this activity," said Mrs. Reed.

Daniel Webster

The fifth-graders in Glenn Forcum's class at Daniel Webster are reliving one of the most exciting epics in American history, The Westward Movement.

The wogan leaders are Joyce Fickert, Tom Horton, Ed Lazzerini, Armando Gonzales and Don Ragland. Vicariously, the pupils are experiencing many of the same problems as the pioneers. Through their construction work they are learning the value of planning their goals, assuming responsibility, and sharing their ideas and resources.

Mrs. Heidland's morning and afternoon kindergarten classes paid visits to see the committees at work since some of the kindergartners have older brothers and sisters who are working on the project.

In connection with their study of the Old West the fourth-graders in Mr. Tom Notaro's room also invited the kindergarten children to see their display of Western items and to let the children take turns in climbing into a real western saddle.

Mrs. Ruth Roger's fourth grade class is bringing to life the history of Early California with murals showing the Early Exploration, Life in the Mission, and Rancho Life. Since they were learning about the trappers and hunters settling the Central Valley, Mrs. Rogers brought a tanned coyote hide which the children discovered had four textures of hair. Ruth Campodonico brought a piece of cowhide which by comparison showed a still different texture of hair. This led to lively discussions about the differences in hair on many animals and the probable necessity for these differences.

The thirty-seven second graders in Mrs. Barbara Schwartz's class visited the Westlake branch of the post office recently. At the culmination of their social studies unit the children wrote letters to their parents, mailed them and received answers. They then discussed step by step how their letters travelled.

The forty-nine third graders in the classes taught by Mrs. California Koenig and Mrs. Nancy Rice took a Bay cruise on March 30 and then stopped at the Japanese Tea Gardens in Golden Gate Park to see the the cherry blossoms.

Mrs. Gould's and Mrs. Carle's first grade classes viewed a film on finger-painting from the San Mateo film library. The children produced some unusual and colorful results from the tips learned from the film.

George Washington

General assembly was presided over by student body president Ronald Hampton at George Washington Grade School Principal Fred Schweickhardt presented the athletic awards for noon league games to Jim Hough's 49er winners for kickball in the sixth grade and to Mrs. Zoe Conn's sixth grade girls, the Vikings, in kickball.

The winners for the fifth grade boys' basketball were Mrs. Violet Norsorthy's Pirates, and also girls dodgeball. The main feature was "Have Rocket Will Travel," presented by Mrs. Rose Aliagas third-fourth grade. The original play was in two scenes, The Campfire and Speeding Through Space. The entire class participated in the production.

COLMA K-6

Miss Blaylock's third grade class at Colma K-6 School traveled down the Peninsula to the Woodside Store at Woodside on Wednesday, March 28. This trip gave the class the actual experience of seeing part of the history of San Mateo County which they have been studying.

The Woodside Store was built in 1854 by Dr. Tripp with logs that had been brought by raft to San Francisco. It was the first store and postoffice in San Mateo. Dr. Tripp had been a dentist, so many people came to him to have their teeth cared for when they needed the services of a dentist.

The children were very interested in all of the old articles that were used over one-hundred years ago. The boys especially liked the collection of old guns and the girls favored the dolls and old-fashioned clothes.

On the way back the class stopped at the Water Temple at Chystal Springs Lake. After admiring the temple the students ate lunch on the lawn. The children were accompanied by Mrs. F. Menconi and Mrs. E. Nappi.

Drake, Cabrillo, Cermenho, Viscaine and their crews came to life for the students of Colma K-6 Schol on March 30. Mrs. McKeown's 3rd/4th grade children presented a play as a culmination of a Social Studies Unit on "California Explorers."

The children wrote their own script and made the props and costumes. In their play they depicted the adventures and hardships of the early explorers. They learned about the early history of California, and also about stage management and how to write a play.

The highlights of the play were the galleon, San Augustin, made by Alan Curtis and Michael Cardoza, and a galleon made by Craig Cafferata, Joyce Lemp and Ralph Oncino.

Miss Carder's first grade class at Colma K-6 has recently been studying community helpers. As a culmination of the unit they are making "child-sized" paper figures of the helpers they have studied. As an introduction to their new social studies unit on "Animals" all the children are choosing an animal about which they are learning. They are finding out pertinent facts about the animals and they will soon make paper mache heads of their favorite animal.

Woodrow Wilson

Mrs. Betty DeBolt's Woodrow Wilson class of third and fourth graders visited the San Francisco Presidio on March 29.

The tour, guided by Sergeant Hawkins, helped to make history live for the students. They saw and touched a cannon which had come from Peru on a Manila Galleon. They crawled through a door into Fort Winfield Scott to observe the living quarters of soldiers of a hundred years ago. They found the trip stimulating and agreed that this was the best and most exciting excursion they had taken.

CALIFORNIA OFFERS EDUCATIONAL HELP

When planning an educational program it's never too early to start," it was stated this week by Floyd D. Granger, San Mateo County Veterans' Service Officer. "Residents of California should review the provisions of the California Dependents Educational Act of 1931 to determine if they could receive educational assistance."

The basic law providing a continuing program of educational assistance for children of servicemen who died as a result of active duty was later broadened in scope. In 1943 educational assistance was extended to widows. In 1959 the State Legislature again amended the program to include children of veterans totally disabled as a result of war service. In 1961 the provisions were extended to include dependents of servicemen who died or were totally disabled as a result of any peacetime military service since September 16, 1940.

"The California educational assistance program is designed to complement the federal program," commented Granger. "Because of the differnces in the requirements, however, it is urged that interested persons visit our office for counselling. If eligible, it is possible to receive $20 monthly at the high school level and, within certain limitations, $50 a month plus tuition at the college level."

Full details concerning the state program, as well as the federal program may be obtained from the County Veterans Service Office, located at the Courthouse, Redwood City, and open fom 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Westlake Teacher Appointed Aerospace Education Officer

Jeannette Adams of 101 Palmcrest Drive in Westlake was recently appointed to the post of Aerospace Officer of the Golden Gate Squadron No. 30 of the Civil Air Patrol, based in the Presidio.

She was selected by Squadron Commander Dimitri P. Moskvin because of her ability and competance, not only as a teacher but as an outstanding example to the young people who attend her classes. This is all the more commendable since she has only been in the CAP program for two and a half years.

Warrant Officer Adams, in 'civilian life" is a Physical Education Teacher at Lowell High School, and confesses that she loves working with the Cadets.

She feels that the Cadet Aviation Education program offered by CAP is the best possible 'after school' activity for air-minded boys and girls. She says, "Although it is sort of a bussmans holiday, I get a deep feeling of satisfaction helping these boys and girls learn the subjects that will help them take their place as leaders in the Aerospage age they will soon inherit.

Pretty, pert and vivacious Jeannette, is often mistaken for one of her teen-age students, the cadets do not let her youthful attractiveness keep them from showing their respect and discipline to this charming officer.

The selection of Miss Adams for this important squadron position was greated with great favor by both the cadet and senior officer staffs of the squadron.

She has more than earned their respect by spending any spare time she has left from all these duties working on an extensive officers candidates course offered through the Air Force Extension Course Institute, and making top grades on her examinations.

Easter Seal Drive Is Falling Short

A drop off in Easter Seal contributions was reported today by Superior Judge J. A. Branson who said that only 9,548 families in the county have returned their envelope which was mailed to 129,000 homes in San Mateo County. Branson is county chairman of the drive.

To date this has brought the total received up to $19,447.43 or 39% of the goal of $50,000 for San Mateo County.

Leaders in the Easter Seal sale in this area are: In Daly City, Art Colvin, Jack A. Hurt, Alfred O. Belotz, Edward D. Morgan and Lee W. Brillhart. In Pacifica, Julian D. Cohn, and Dr. J. C. Miles.

They indicated today that local residents are lagging in mailing their contribution and urged immediate attention to meet the quota assigned.

"We urgently request all who have not made a contribution to do so at once by addressing their check to "Easter Seal," care of your local postmaster," Branson declared, "Or you may send it to the Rehabilitation Center at 1764 Marco Polo Way, Burlingame."

Judge Branson pointed out that there are 14,310 handicapped persons in San Mateo County, and the San Mateo County Society for Crippled Children and Adults is the agency providing help for these citizens.

REHABILITATION

The Easter Seal Society at its Rehabilitation Center provides physical therapy, occupational therapy and speech and hearing therapy, and hundreds of people are being restored to useful, active citizens as a result of the center's facilities.

Judge Branson also pointed out that the Eatser Seal sale is one that has no "pressuring, pestering or front door appeals." We simply send you the Easter Seals, you contribute as much as you care in the privacy of your home or office and mail in your contribution.

"I am sure," he emphasized today, "that thousands of our fine citizens of San Mateo County have simply neglected to take care of this important matter and will come through to help maintain operation of these facilities in the county."

April Brings Roses To California Gardens

When April comes to California, it's a cinch that the first roses can't be far behind. Indeed, in some favored gardens, they may already have bloomed. Having reached this plateau, however, let's not sit back and forget that continued bloom from now to late fall only comes from the proper care.

The California Association of Nurserymen's advice for rosarians this month should set a pattern for the months to come —water, feed and spray.

As ever in California, water has to be ranked as the most important single aid to the happiness of a rose. April showers often supply it in sufficient quantity, but stand ready with the hose if mother nature ftils to come through. Make a basin around each bush and fill it slowly.

As for feeding, the next most important need, let a CAN nurseryman suggest the proper food. Special rose foods are available that promote good growth and sturdy canes. Fertilizer should be scratched into the soil around each plant but never right next to the trunk. The exceptions to this are the soluble fertilizers which will not burn plants.

SPRAYING

Spraying is almost always necessary to control such pests as aphids and thrips and fungus diseases such as mildew. However, the degree of such troubles will vary from garden to garden, so let your nurseryman help you to set up a spray schedule since he's knowledgeable about such needs in your neighborhood.

The last CAN recommendation is to mulch roses, starting right now. Mulching conserves moisture and also keeps weeds down. Use a good layer of steer manue for this around each bush and you'll be doing your roses a real favor. They'll return in kind, too, with a better performance through the year.

We might add a suggestion to the CAN list, too, namely that you make up for whatever lack of rose planting you might have indulged in during bare root season. Container roses are easy to plant, and you can be sure your nurseryman has brought them on toward the first bloom with loving care. You couldn't ask for more.

Robin Hood Band Plays For Westmoor Students

Bringing the message of good will to our foreign friends was the intention of the Robin Hood Band in their world premiere of MUSICAL AMBASSADORS.

This motion picture captures on film and sound track the uniue story of the Robin Hood Band's international friendship tour of Europe the summer of 1961. The tour and the film have the same purpose — to bring a message of good will to people everywhere.

Several music students from Westmoor along with Howard Loeffler traveled to Oakland on Saturday, March 23, to view this unique band composed of high school students from California and sponsored by the Independent Order of Foresters.

After hearing a concert of both classic and contemporary music by the band, the music students: Clarin Reiter, Sue Landis, Darlyn Blair, Aaron Manganiello, Charleen Maschinot, Petty Connal, Barbara Brown, Linda Hurst, and Rosalie Christono, felt that there was an element in the band that is very rarely found in high school bands. Not only did the boys and girls of the band enjoy playing together, they also believed in what they were doing and appeared to be absorbed in nothing else.

VOCALISTS

Two fine vocalists displayed their talents. A striking black-light performance was given depicting a group of South American musicians glowing phosphorescently in the semi-darkness. The young men and women of the band not only filled the air with music and talent, but also won the admiration of the high school students who had come to hear them play.

The film, Musical Ambassadors, presented for the first time at the Oakland Auditorium, began in Toronto, Canada, and continued a third of the way around the world, playing in Denmark, behind the Iron Curtain, Switzerland, France and ending in London, England on the approximate spot Robin Hood and his merry men gambled.

HOLLYWOOD

Four of Holylwood's top cameramen shot thousands of feet of film and the choice scenes and moments were edited into one of the most delightful hours ever spent in a theater. The incredible quantity of instruments, costumes and props that were used during the tour were handled by an entourage of eighty-six persons.

Project of sending this fine young band abroad was initiated in early 1959 by Lou Probst, Supreme Chief Ranger of the IOF. Probst started raising funds with which to send the band on the tour. Finally, in summer 1961, the group was off to Europe to spread musical frienship.

Distinctive music that the band plays comes from the pen and baton of its founding director, David Baskerville. He composed and directed the film's musical score, and his creative talents are responsible for winning the reputation that is the envy of the young artists the world over.

A Surprise For Mrs. Ricci

Following the 9 a.m. Mass at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, at which Mothers Club members recently received Communion in a group, a breakfast was held in the Banquet Room of the Westlake Bowl in honor of Mrs. Catherine Ricci for her many years of devoted service to the Mothers Club.

The honor came as a surprise to Mrs. Ricci, wife of Anthony Ricci, and mother of Donna Lee, Judith, Patricia and Donald. Since their first child entered Our Lady of Perpetual Help School, Mrs. Ricci has given most generously of her time and talents, serving in nealry every available capacity, from cafeteria helper to Mothers Club president. This term she served as general chairman of the very successful fashion luncheon.

Unfortunately for Mrs. Ricci, the breakfast fell on April Fool's Day, and she was obliged to open one empty package after another before finally arriving at one containing a lovely sculptured pearl bracelet with an engraved medallion. Mrs. Octave Mignault, president, also presented her with an orchid corsage on behalf of the Mothers Club members, and she received several other gifts from her family and associates who have enjoyed working with her over the years.

When Donna Lee graduates this June, she will be the last of the four Ricci children to graduate from Our Lady of Perpetual Help School. Donald, after graduating from the University of California, is now a public accountant, and Patricia is in her second year of a nursing course at Mary's Help Hospital.

Comprising another panel of experts were Robert Crennen, Thomas Eastham, Harlod Schlotthauer, and Warden Winslow.

Luncheon was served at noon; and Dr. Julio Bortolazzo, president of the college, greeted the guests. Also addressing the conference was Newton Wallace, second vice-president of the California Newspaper Publishers Association.

Each high school in the county was presented with a book about journalism, for the school library.

TV and RADIO

By Mona Baker

Exciting news from ABC is the announcement that the network will begin color telecasting next fall over its five owned stations which includes KGO-TV in San Francisco.

According to President Leonard H. Goldenson "all the stations will be equipped with the latest color television facilities."

Equally important is what programs will be telecast in color. We do hope the network will give serious consideration to a regularly scheduled fashion show which would certainly get the colorcasts off to a flying start. Originate the show from San Francisco — truly a city of high fashion — using as background various San Francisco locations.

Hope you had a chance to watch KPIX's "Salute to Westmoor" last week over "Dance Party." The show was very well done — as the student panelists talked on-the-scene camera shots of the school was flashed on the screen. Dick Stewart handled the show skillfully maintaining an excellent balance between serious subjects and entertainment so the program moved right along.

Plans for KPIX's public service project for 1962 (referred to as "Community of Strangers" of which the high school salute is a part) includes coverage of other activities in Bay Area suburbs. We hope they'll be back to our area soon covering another aspect of our community life by cameras and script.

STENOGRAPHERS — Eleven members of the advanced stenography and transcription class of Westmoor High School in Daly City visited the Pacific Coast Head Office of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in San Francisco on March 28th. They were accompanied by their instructor, Mrs. Kay Ravenel, and a student teacher, Mrs. Nelda Nocita. Arrangements for the visit were made by Harry Farber, local Metropolitan Representative. The visitors are pictured in the garden of the Metropolitan Building in San Francisco with Ralph Reichle, supervisor, personnel division. Front row, left to right: Kathleen Ritchie, Michele Rossi, Nancy Woolfenden, Beverly Davidson, Blaize Menard, Janet Gehre, Mrs. Nocita. Third row: Janet Piccinini, R. F. Reichle, Mary Varden, Norma Vladyka, Linda Elliott, Mrs. Ravenel.

Stenography Class Takes A Quick Tour

One of the largest corporations in the world, the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, recently hosted Mrs. Kay Ravenel's steno transcription and shorthand classes to a tour of its West Coast office located on Stockton between California and Pine.

At 9:30 an March 28, Westmoorites participating in the excursion were excused from morning classes on the windy hill and boarded a San Francisco bound bus.

Among those attending were Bev Davidson, Linda Elliott, Janet Gehre, Blaize Menard, Kathy Ritchie, Mechele Rossi and Nancy Woolfenden. Group also included senior shorthand students Mary Varden, Norma Vladyka and Judy Mann.

Tour began in the morning with a brief talk by the personnel supervisor concerning job opportunities for graduating seniors with the company. He explained the use of the job application form and the typing, spelling and transcription tests in determining the acceptability of an applicant. He also added that all graduating seniors who plan to apply for work with Metropolitan Life should make an appointment for an interview during Easter vacation.

At the conclusion of the talk, company employees conducted separate tours to the duplicating and transcription offices, mail room, interior decorators offices and the dispensery.

From this point, wide-eyed visitors were directed into the company cafeteria where they enjoyed lunch along with the company's 1600 employees. After lunch and a quick visit to the vice-president's office, the group had its picture taken by a company photographer.

Dinosaur Bones; A Deep Subject

By JACK WOOD

Bones of a mighty Brontosaurus dinosaur might lie under Daly City.

They might be 1,000 feet underground. They might be 100 feet down. But chances are they are down there pretty deep.

There is every possibility that the bones might be there. Only thing is, no one has ever found any bones of this type in Northern California. But that doesn't mean they aren't there.

Daly City Rockhound Club president Gene Myers explained it this way:

FAIRLY NEW DIRT

"Dinosaur bones are rare in California because this is a new geological area. The dirt on the surface is only a couple of million years old."

Back East, he said, the surface dirt is 100 to 200 million years old.

But in Northern California, there was a "great upheaval" during the last couple hundred thousand years.

"This area sank to the bottom of the ocean. Silt filled in on the ocean floor. Then the ocean floor rose to become new ground."

IN THE TAR PITS

That's why dinosaur bones are rare here in California, said Meyers. They just haven't had a chance to uncover themselves.

"They probably were here," said Meyers.

The Los Angeles tar pits prove this point, he related. The tar has preserved parts of the bones, teeth, and nails, while the flesh was cooked off.

In the future said Mayers, "we may get to see quite a few dinosaur bones."

Don't plan on it next year, however. Or the next 10 years, even.

Meyers said that for the surface to erode off enough to expose the bones it might take "a million years or so."

FOREIGN IMPORTS

While the surface is eroding away, some real bones have arrived on the scene. They are imports, however.

A dozen dinosaur bones have been stashed into the Josephine Randall Junior Museum in San Francisco.

"These are the only dinosaur bones in Northern California," happly announced Dr. William B. Sandborn, chairman of the museum's advisory board.

He means the only bones on the surface.

It was disclosed that the bones are from a Brontosaurus and some from a Diplodocus, which were two of the largest species of dinosaurs, varying from 60 to 80 feet in length and weighing 30 tons or so.

DINOSAUR FACTS

The bones were dug up in 1911 in what is now known as Dinosaur National Monument, at the border of Colorado and Utah. They were found in rock of the Jurassic period of the Mesozoic Era, which dates the bones at about 140 million years.

Basic facts on dinosaurs:

The Brontosaurus and Diplodocus diosaurs were vegeterians, are related to modern alligators and crocodiles, and have been extinct for at least 80 million years.

But, they're on the way up, you must admit.

Farber is on the staff of the company's Portola district office at 4752 Mission St., San Francisco.

There are 16 million acres of land in the Navajo Indian Reservation in northeastern Arizona, New Mexico and Utah.

Gardener's Checklist

1. Begonia seedlings may be planted now. Stake the tender young plants and feed them twice monthly with liquid fish.
2. Caterpillars often show up on Wisteria and on a few other favorites this time of year. Spray them before they get started. Ask your nurseryman what to use.
3. Plant annuals for late spring and summer bloom.
4. Container grown fuchsias should be fed and watered more frequently than those in the ground. Pinch the growing tips back, too, to promote bush growth.
5. Pot up Pelargoniums and Geraniums for bright color on sunny decks and terraces.

Spring Arrived With Sun, Birds And Baseball

Housewives sunning themselves on door steps. Highway patrolmen in sunglasses and shirtsleeves. Plenty of sunshine and a balmy breeze April 6 gave notice that spring, though a little late, had officially arrived in Daly City.

At Marchbanks Park, a boy tossed a javelin and played with a Collie dog, then removed his shirt and sunned himself in the grass.

On the opposite side of the park an elderly woman in sunbonnet talked to a young girl as both enjoyed the sunshine on a park bench.

The sound of traffic on Junipero Serra boulevard made a gentle "whoosh" instead of the usual roar. Stacatto sounds of children at play and an unusual chorus of birds made the day as the city basked in 74 degree temperatures.

Above it all the bright sunshine bore down on houses, people, cars and verdant grass, which on this day, took on special meaning of spring picnics, ballgames and just plain lazy run.

Jefferson High met Westmoor on the Westmoor hill, in probably what was to be the only warm day of the season, since a cloud of fog cloaks this area most of the time.

One of the coaches up there said, "watch this kid's knuckler!" A knuckler? he was asked. A high school pitcher with a knuckler?

"Well," said the coach, "It's not exactly that he THROWS a knuckler, but he throws the ball and then the wind picks it up and . . .

Yeah, yeah, say no more he was told.

BYA Defeats DC Drugs, 5-3

Daly City Drugs suffered its first loss of the year last Friday when Art Colvin BYA behind the pitching of Tim Herbert triumphed over the league leaders, 5-3.

Herbert out pitched three opposition hurlers in going all the way for the win. He recorded eight strike-outs on the way—five in the last three innings.

Herbert's throwing efforts were almost matched by BYA catcher Greg Brenk who threw out three runners trying to steal, and leftfielder Lee Williams who nailed two runners trying to advance from first to second.

The winning run crossed in the third inning when Williams singled to center. Timely hitting was also contributed by Tom Olson, Ron Stefani, Norm Cipriano, Rex Arnott and Brenk.

For the losers Barry Pothoff tagged a long homer in the third inning.

COUGARS

Cougars have a wider distribution than any other American mammal, according to the National Automobile Club.

They are found near sea level, on high mountains, in the rain belt of the forested Northwest, in the deserts, and deep in the dense growth of the tropics.

More speed calls for more space between your car and the car ahead, points out the National Automobile Club.

Scout-O-Rama Roundtable Preview April 12

A preview roundtable for San Mateo County Council Boy Scouts' 1962 edition of Scout-O-Rama will be held at the Fiesta Building in the county fair grounds on Thursday evening, April 12, according to W. Alan Bonner, regional manager of Fisher Flouring Mills Co. and Scout-O-Rama Chairman.

Leaders from over 300 Packs, Troops and Explorer units from throughout San Mateo County will gather to receive information and assistance that will help make this year's show — "Fit for Tomorrow" — the best yet produced.

Ralston Mansion Will Host Governor Brown

When College of Notre Dame Alumnae Association hold their first formal ball in the recently restored Ralston Ballroom in Belmont, on Saturday evening, April 28, Governor and Mrs. Edmund G. Brown will be guests of honor.

The Ralston Mansion was built by William C. Ralston, "The Man Who Built San Francisco" in the 1860's and was considered one of the show places of the Peninsula. Because so many notable persons, such as U. S. Grant, Edward VII, as Prince of Wales, and other important dignitaries from the foreign and domestic diplomatic corps were weekend guests, the Ralston Mansion was known as the White House of the West.

When the Sisters of Notre Dame purchased the Ralston property in 1922, the ballroom was converted into a chapel. At that time the magnificent mirror-panelled walls were covered. Last fall a new chapel was completed and the restoration of the ballroom began immediately.

The grandeur and elegance that was synonymous with the wealthy barons of the Comstock era is reflected in the entire Ralston mansion, but particularly in the ballroom with its mirrored walls and sparkling crystal chandeliers.

Pacifica Boy Shot By Hunting Arrow

A nine-year-old Pacifica boy accidently shot his five-year-old campanion in the arm with a steel-tipped hunting arrow April 6.

The victim was William Storie, of 378 Bancroft. He was watching John Kaufman, 9, of 352 Bancroft, shoot arrows into a vacant lot when one of the arrows deflected, hitting him in the shoulder area of his arm. He was treated at Milagra Medical Center, Pacifica.

Frank Ingersoll Chairman For J. A. Younger

Appointment of Frank B. Ingersoll, Jr., Burlingame attorney, as chairman of the Younger Congressional Campaign Committee for 1962 elections was announced today by Congressman J. Arthur Younger and was a member of the San Mateo County Republican Central Committee for 15 years and chairman for 6 years.

He is a member of the Burlingame law firm of Carr, McClellan, Ingersoll, and Thompson, and is active in civic affairs, currently being president of the San Mateo County Development Association.

Ingersoll announced that a complete countywide campaign to re-elect Representative Younger for his sixth term is already underway and he will have vigorous support from both Republicans and Democrats through the entire Congressional District.

GOURMET'S HERBS FROM THE GARDEN

The man who grows herbs within easy reacn of his kitchen is one who enjoys the better things of life. Like the home vegetable gardener, he knows the culinary pleasures which are unattainable to the cook who buys only from the neighborhood grocer.

With herbs, it is nice just to crush the leaves and sniff them as you pass by in the garden. But it is pure joy to pinch a spot of basil for a last minute addition to the soup pot, to garnish fried chicken with leaves of thyme or to freshen an iced drink with a sprig of mint.

The space required for growing herbs is so small that no garden should be without its share of these wonderful kitchen accessories. Herbs grow beautifully in pots or plant boxes. Indeed, herb growing is an art which even the apartment dweller can pursue provided he has access to a sunny window box or some small space either on the roof or in the back yard of his apartment house.

Starting an herb garden has become vastly simpler in the past decade or so, thanks to increased attention given this problem by members of the serymen. Where once it was necessary to grow herbs from seed, it is now possible to find well started plants in CAN nurseries. This not only simplifies the process immeasurably, but enables you to avoid that awful excess of plants which seeding invariably results in.

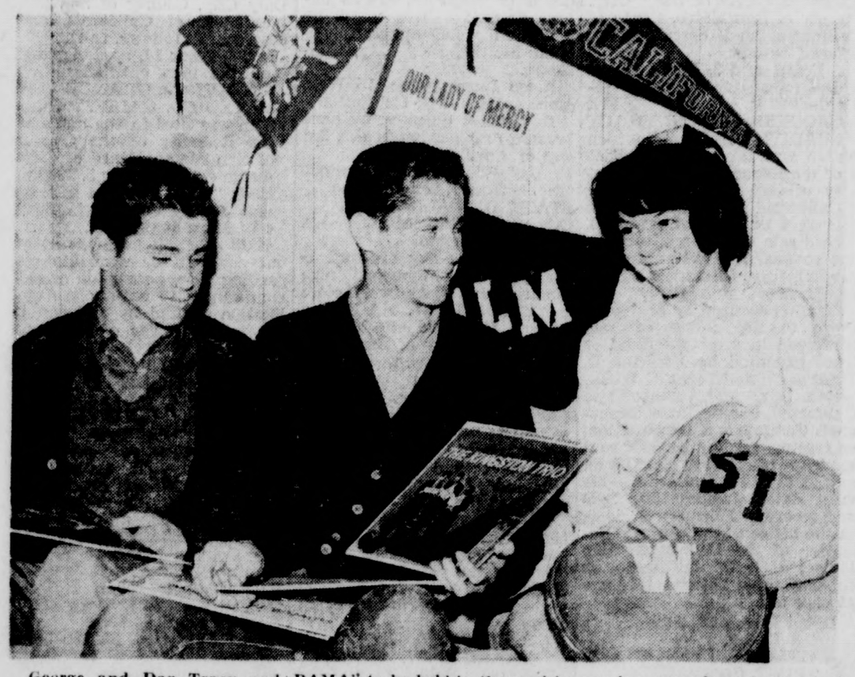
For the budding herbal enthusiast, the CAN suggests six or eight standbys as a start: Parsley, which many consider more a vegetable than herb, chives, thyme, rosemary, basil, sage, marjoram and mint are readily available and always in demand by cooks. As your interest expands, you can try savory, tarragon, carraway, dill and many others, though some of them may be found only from seed.

Most herbs are better and more aromatic if the soil they are planted in is on the poorer side. This does not mean they don't like attention, however, for as with all herbaceous plants, they do best when they get plenty of water and sun. They may be cut in late summer and dried by hanging upside down. But herbs are always best when picked fresh from the garden and used within minutes of that time.

ART OF ANTICIPATION

Practice the art of anticipation in driving, the art of looking ahead in the line to see what is happening, advises the National Automobile Club.

By doing so, you will help to keep yourself safe.



George and Dan Tracy and Marion Lawson, along with teen-agers of Our Lady of Mercy of Westlake parish, are rounding out plans for their part in the festival "SPACE-O-RAMA" to be held in the parish hall on May 3, 4, 5, 6. The teen-age booth, named "WAY OUT," will feature various school pennants, pom-poms, pillows with school emblems, and the ever-popular records and record albums. Everyone is welcome at the Our Lady of Mercy of Westlake parish hall for four fun-filled days, May 3, 4, 5, 6.

PRAYER IS EMPHASIZED FOR LUTHERAN WOMEN

Mrs. De Cora Garden, secretary of Education of the American Lutheran Church Women at Westlake Lutheran Church recently emphasized the responsibilities of her department. Through this department women in the group are encouraged to know and recognize with a deeper understanding the power of Prayer in their daily lives.

This is done through the Bible studies which are conducted at the meetings which are held on the evening of the third Monday of each month. Magazines and various publications of an inspirational nature are made available and are channels of valuable information and assistance.

Concern and interest also reaches out to the various mission fields of the Lutheran Church where the missionaries who are laboring under hardships constantly need help and supplies to carry out their programs. Emphasis is put on the progress and development of the various Lutheran schools and colleges during the year for the benefit of the young people in the community and their parents.

These colleges and schools are open to all interested boys and girls and representatives visit the churches periodically to acquaint students and parents with pertinent facts and information. The next meeting of the A. L. C. W. will be Monday, April 16 at 8 p.m. at the Westlake Lutheran Church at 222 Avalon Drive in Daly Ctiy.

VISTA GRANDE CHURCH WORKS ON FUND DRIVE

A campaign is well under way to raise $360,000 for a mammoth new community center of the Christian Churches of Northern California-Western Nevada, The Rev. Harold Lockwood of Vista Grande Ave. Christian Church said.

The purpose of the fund drive is to construct the Community of the Great Commission on 866 acres of land which the church owns 25 miles northeast of Auburn, at the base of the High Sierra.

In 1960 a disasterous forest fire destroyed a vast portion of the land. Since that time hundreds of volunteer workers of the Christian Churches have planted more than 100,000 seedlings which drew praise of state forestry officials. The tree planting effort is continuing throughout this spring.

The Rev. Lockwood said it is hoped that some construction work can start on the church center this summer. Many youth programs sponsored by the Christian Churches will be staged at the wooded site during school vacation.

The fund drive is being conducted for three years. Local church members assisting Rev. Lockwood with the campaign in this area include Clarence Rockey, 8 Gambetta St. and David McKee, 420 Santa Barbara Ave., Daly City.

The Sport Scene

By JIM GOLDSBOROUGH

Spartan Games Herald The End

THREE WEEKS AGO THE DALY CITY RECREATION baseball league started. Two weeks ago the Peninsula League baseball action started. Monday Washington played Detroit. Tuesday the major league baseball season started.

So believing that without individuality there is nothing, Saturday I attended a football game.

Actually it was more than just a football game, it was a whole carnivalia, a jubilee a la Roman games that went under the name Spartan Games. With the football game between the San Jose State varsity and the alumni (Dan Colchico, Ray Norton, Billy Wilson, et al) as the main attraction, this San Jose orgy included everything but the lions and the Christians.

There were of course chariot races and foot races between the different area tribes (fraternities I believe they are called, there was individual combat (judo), gymnastics, ball contests (throwing, kicking) and music. In the stands there was gorging and drinking.

I don t believe there was a sacrifice, but I got there late.

THIS WHOLE AFFAIR IS BILLED AS THE ANNUAL Spartan Games, and together with a track meet on the big oval next to Spartan Stadium, is to become the big spring event down there.

It's a part straight football, one part P. T. Barnum, add a little Frank Lane and mix. And the concoction is good; a news release indicated that they expected 4,500 people, and 6,000 showed up. It was well worth it — a good festival and a good football game. The varsity won it, 27-15, despite the presence of the more beefy opposition.

San Jose seems to be emerging as a first class sports school. The track team is good and the football team will be. This game marked the end of spring practice. No more now until the fall when the Spartans will meet both Stanford and California, and could, conceivably, beat both of them.

WHY, I WONDERED, IS THE SPORTS FORTUNE of this relatively unknown school turning up, while the big brothers, Stanford and Cal, seem to be fielding nothing but teams of floundering gladiators. Some of us congregated after the game and I found out.

San Jose has easier entrance requirements. At Stanford and Cal one must first be a scholar and secondarily an athlete. If those schools have a good team it is because that particular year's crop of scholars just happens to have a few athletes in it. A few Whizzer Whites perhaps.

San Jose is more lenient, and consequently may very soon start turning out superior athletic teams.

The question is which is the better policy?

PERSONALLY, I LIKE TO SEE A LITTLE OF BOTH. MIT never has bothered much with athletics, neither has Cal Tech. They take our best minds, give them the best education, and don't bother with entertaining the public on Saturdays. But with those schools alone, about .001 per cent of the old population would ever get a sheepskin. Cal and Stanford illustrate the schools that try for a little of everything —top education, liberal arts and a big time athletic program. San Jose points more for the average student who wants to go to college, who can do college work and thinks that college, beer and football are fun and wants a little bit of it all while he's there. It's easier to get in down there and they pay the athletes expenses. Consequently they just may get better teams.

A college or a university is an academic institution, not only primarily, but solely. If sport ever becomes so much that the other is neglected then it should go or be de-emphasized or whatever they call it. But until then I can see no harm in wanting good athletic teams, and trying to attract good athletes.

It was a good festival on a good warm day in the sun. It was football's one big spring flash.

But the game ended, the festival ended, spring football ended and now the Sports Scene ends.

Jefferson Nine Defeats Westmoor Rams 8-2

In the first cross-town baseball meeting of the year Jefferson took a convincing 8-2 game from Westmoor in a contest played last Friday on the Rams' diamond.

Both teams threw their best pitcher and the verdict went to the Indians' Bob Miller. Harry Brown pitched for Westmoor.

Miller allowed only four hits, struck out six and walked four in going all the way for the win. He is now 2-1 in league play. Brown's first loss of the season gives him an identical record.

Jeff scored first in the first inning when left-fielder Mike Morton opened the game with a single, took second on a single by Rich Reitz.

Westmoor came back in the last half of the second when shortstop Steve Funai clouted a 280 foot home-run over Morton's head in left, tying it at 1-1.

Jefferson scored two runs in the third to clinch the game. Morton opened with a walk, stole second and rode in on a triple by second-baseman Mike Roavi. Roavi then came in on Al Cacicedo's safety.

The Indians added three more in the sixth on a single by Cacicedo, base on balls by shortstop Larry Keeling, a double steal and another single by Pryor Bailey. Bailey then came in on a fielder's choice.

Two more in the top of the seventh made it 8-2.

One more single by Funai, along with safeties by Bruce Hix and Scott Shackleford rounded out the Rams' hitting for the day.

The Rams still held on to a part of the league lead with the loss, tied with Jeff and three other teams at 2-1.

Cap Beats Indians In 8 Frames

It took extra innings to do it, but the Capuchino Mustangs held on for a narrow 3-2 victory over Jefferson last Tuesday.

Mustang pitcher Wally Bunker blanked the Indians for six innings only to have Jeff right-fielder Bob Brush tie the game in the top of the seventh with a clutch two-out, two-run single to center.

Indian pitcher Bob Miller pitched as effectively as his counterpart, but an error in the first inning let an unearned run in, and kept him from winning it in regulation innings.

Jefferson out-hit the Capuchino team seven-five, but was unable to deliver with men on the bases. Cap pitcher Bunker struck out 12 on the way to his first league win of the year.

After Brush's single tied in the seventh, both teams were scoreless until Cap center fielder Lance Haag singled across the winning run in the last of the eighth.

Indian Tankmen Win-Lose

Jefferson swimmers won one and lost one last week by the identical 64-31 score.

Tuesday against a rough Mills team the Indians came up on the short end of the score as the probable league champs swept to victories in all events but the 100 yard backstroke and the free relay. Team Captain Ken Kaleike took the only individual Jefferson honor when he ripped to a 1:08.8 mark in the backstroke event.

It was no better for the Bees or Cees as the Viking lightweights took both, 70-7 and 44-15.

Thursday the Indians reversed the score against South San Francisco. Kaleike won again, and this time was assisted by three other individual Indian wins, and wins in both relays.

The free relay team set a school record with a mark of 1:46.2 in the event.

South San Francisco took B team competition, 53-22, but Jefferson came back to capture the C meet, 39-20.

Hix Blasts Second HR

Two Westmoor pitchers teamed up last Friday to hurl a no-hit ballgame against the winless Terra Nova Tigers.

Harry Brown, relieving starter Dave Williams with one out in the second inning, set down 15 Tigers in a row in guiding Westmoor to the win.

Wililams started but was wild. Two walks in the first inning together with a double steal gave the Pacificans a run without a hit. In the second, Williams walked two more and was replaced by Brown. The second Ram hurler then started his perfect string, retiring everybody until giving up a walk in the seventh.

This was the second straight game in which Brown retired 15 opposing batters in a row. He did the same thing in the opener against Aragon.

TWO HOMERUNS

Sophomore third - baseman Bruce Hix, first up in the third inning, blasted his second PL home-run to give the Rams their first run of the game. And Westmoor went on to score two more in the third to provide Brown with the lead.

After Hix teed off, Mike Daniels fanned, but the rally kept going when Scott Shakelford drew a base on balls. Shackelford stole second and rode in on Tito Torres single to left. Torres kept going on the play at the plate, and came all the way when Tiger catcher Bob Simons overthrew third.

In the fifth the Rams added their last run when freshman catcher Nick Krnich tot an infield single, stole second and went to third on a shallow single to right by Brown. Second-baseman Al Contreras got on via a fielders choice, and with the bases loaded and nobody out, Steve Funai got another infield single to score Krnich. One in, sacks still loaded.

The rally then ended as quickly as it started when Brown tried to score on a short Hix fly to right and was cut down at the plate. Funai was out stealing for the third out.

Brown walked only one and struck out six on the way to his no-hitter. The only real bid for a hit from the bats of the Tigers came in the fourth inning when pitcher Don Katona ripped a line drive toward left that was knocked down on a dive by Hix, who got up and threw him out.

ABOUT 8000 THINGS PLANNED FOR DC SUMMER RECREATION

The organization and planning of the 1962 Daly City summer recreation program is underway. This program, a product of the desire of the residents of Daly City towards a healthy, active, wholesome environment for the children of the community, has been noted as one of the most outstanding in the state of California.

In planning the program, the Department of Recreation takes into consideration all phases of recreation and all age groups. Daly City is also fortunate in the availability of sources of recreation leadership. The Department of Recreation selects its staff from a large number of credentialed school teachers, college students and professional athletes.

Staff is chosen on qualifications in relation to assignments. The playground leader responsibilty towards the summer program is the conducting of the general summer recreation program on various facilities. The general summer recreation program will consist of organized schedules of games of low organization, athletics, social activities and just plain fun for all age groups. Children will be able to take advantage of this program Mondays through Saturdays on their local city park or school facility.

ARCHERY

There will again be instruction in archery this summer. The Department of Recreation will furnish equipment and the instructor. Children may utilize their own equipment if they so desire. Archery specialist this year will be a man with many years of competitive and instructional experience behind him. His interest and ability in the sport promises the children and outstanding program this summer.

Children take great pleasure in the summer movie program Last summer there was an attendance of over 8,000 for this phase of the summer program. A projectionist travels throughout the city and shows films at several of the recreational facilities. Film catalogues this year offer an even greater variety than in the past. Films are chosen for the showings with the best interests of the children in mind.

Tumbling is always popular with the younger boys and girls. The Department of Recreation provides tumbling mats at all recreational facilities. The Tumbling Specialist is usually a Physical Education teacher with a great deal of teaching experience in this field. Tumbling is an excellent exercise for the development of flexibility and co-ordination in children. It is also a gerat deal of fun. Girls in particular seem to enjoy this activity.

MUSIC

Musical activity is an important part of recreation. Last summer the children were offered a program of music and also baton twirling classes. Many of the children that participated in these activities took part in the talent show at the end of summer. Large audiences showed great apreciation for the efforts of the children. This year a program of dance classes is being considered. This part of the summer program will depend upon the talents of the applicants for the summer musical specialist's position.

Other specialists will be added to the program as individuals with outstanding talents and the ability to construct an enjoyable recreational situation for children are selected.

BASEBALL

The annual summer baseball leagues should be outstanding again this year. Caliber of local athletic league play constantly brings request to the Department of Recreation from teams outside Daly City for consideration as participants. Unfortunately for these clubs, Daly City has enough local teams to fill the available diamonds from Monday through Saturday.

Last summer Daly City leagues had 18 midget teams and 14 junior teams competing for championships. Early interest this year and the existence of a practice league schedule already underway indicates the number of teams will be greater than ever.

There is more too. The development and completion of the Westmoor Park and Lincoln Park clubhouses will allow the Department of Recreation to schedule many additional types of recreational activity. These two new facilities will give residents of the community more opportunity to enjoy leisure time interests.

The Department of Recreation will also continue to cosponsor a varied program of recreational activity with the YWCA. The program of this activity will be available in the near future.

All this and a geared up Teen Club program, Adult Softball League, tennis, badminton, croquet and horseshoes, promises the youth of Daly City an active, interesting and enjoyable summer.
